ARMSTRONG|SHANK WINS TWO NATIONAL AWARDS

Armstrong|Shank, a full-service marketing, public relations, advertising and interactive firm, has been recognized in two national competitions, for an advertising campaign the agency created for a Colorado-based client.

Both awards were given for the "Heritage Campaign" developed for Mountain Plains Farm Credit Services, based in Greeley, CO.

The illustrations for the campaign received a 2007 Award of Excellence, from Communication Arts, and were featured in the publication's 48th annual illustration exhibition.

And, the campaign was recognized as the first runner up in the American Banking Association national competition for Inspirational Campaigns, asset size $500 million to $1 Billion.

President and CEO Susan Armstrong said the awards are an honor for the agency, and its creative team. "We feel fortunate to have great clients who allow us to do excellent work," she said.

Senior Vice President and Creative Director Ed Shank, agreed. "We always enjoy receiving awards," he said. "They validate the talent of our writers and designers."

Armstrong|Shank is an integrated communications firm, with offices in Wichita and Oklahoma City. The company has been in business 26 years.
